Description

GRIDX is a destination for multidimensional experiences, nourished by technology, craftsmanship and automotive excellence. It's also a place of discovery, combining passion and emotion, inspiring creativity and innovation, and inviting exploration.

Over an area of more than 42,000 square metres, you'll find a multitude of universes: craftsmanship of excellence, high-end boutiques, culinary delights, digital art exhibitions and exceptional vehicles.

GRIDX offers a wide range of event spaces, from a 1,400 m² event hall to a 900 m² business center. The 133 rooms of our boutique hotel complete the offer.

Located in Wickrange, just a few minutes from Luxembourg's capital and Esch-sur-Alzette, and connected to the A4 motorway, GRIDX is currently being built to the highest environmental standards.

Are you a specialist in your field? Would you like to share your know-how with other enthusiasts? Would you like to be part of this adventure and offer your employees the comfort of our all-in-one concept? Or would you like to organize an unforgettable event?

Contact us and we'll develop your project together.
